In our next will be found the Order of Battle of the French Army commanded by the Marshal de Villars.

Tarmouth, Sep. 13. Yesterday came into these Roads Her Majesty's Ship the Mary Galley, with the light Fleet of Colliers of about 100 Sail; and this day came in here Her Majesty's Ships the Tyger and the Margaret, with about 100 Sail of Laden Colliers. As also Her Majesty's Ship the Grayhound came in here from the Downes; in her Passage she met with 3 Ships, who chas'd her, one of them is supposed to be the Queen of Spain, and the other 2 Privateers, all of Ostend: In the pursuit the Queen of Spain Sprung her Main Top Mast; by which means, and the Night favouring, the Grayhound got clear.

WE hear that Sir John Parsons and Sir Thomas Cooke,* the two eldest Aldermen, who have not pass'd the Chair, stand fair to be return'd by the Common Hall to the Court of Aldermen on the 29th instant, in order for one of them to be Lord-Mayor of this City for the Year ensuing; They being of known Abilities and well affected to the Government and the Welfare of this City. And particularly Sir John Parsons in a late unparalleld Instance, hath been indefatigable in promoting a Bill now depending in the Common-Council, to appropriate the Duties of Coal and Corn Meutage, being about 5000 l. per Annum Value (upon the Death of the present Officers of Meutage) towards Payment of the Cities Debts, tho' the Selling of these Offices hath been heretofore made a Perquisite to the Mayoralty.

This day is publish'd, Memoirs of the Sieur d' Ablancourt. Containing A General History of the Court and Kingdom of Portugal, from the Pyrenean Treaty, to the Year 1668. With a full Relation of all the Battels and Sieges in the War between Spain and Portugal, under the Command of the late Duke of Schomberg, then in the Portugueze Service. With the Character, and some material Passages of that Great General's Life : As also an exact Account of the deposing of the late King Alfonso, and the Accession of Don Pedro, his present Portugueze Majesty ; and other remarkable Transactions, whereby will appear the Genius, Policy and Strength of that Nation, and its Interest with respect to Foreign Courts : Also the Treaty of Peace between Portugal and Spain, and the League Offensive and Defensive between France and Portugal. Translated from the French Copy, Printed at Paris, 1701. Printed for Ralph Smith, under the Royal Exchange, Cornhill ; and James Round in Exchange-Alley, 1703.
